Roger Bobo "The Tuba Legend"

1956-1962 Principal Tuba, Rochester Philharmonic, USA
1962-1964 Principal Tuba, Royal Concertgebouw Orchestra di Amsterdam, NL
1964-1989 Principal Tuba, Los Angeles Philharmonic Orchestra, USA

Roger Bobo is one of the world's most renowned tubists and brass pedagogues. As a soloist he has performed internationally with major ensembles and gave the first recital for solo tuba in New York's Carnegie Recital Hall. A regular performer in the film studios of Hollywood, he was also a founding member of the Los Angeles Brass Quintet.

Roger Bobo has become one of the leading brass teachers with regular masterclasses throughout the world, and is a faculty member at the Royal Northern School of Music in Manchester (GB), the Fiesole Music School (I), and the Lausanne Conservatory (CH). Former students occupy important positions in leading ensembles throughout the world. Roger Bobo left his career as a soloist in 2001 in order to devote more time to his conducting activities. Apart from appearances with various international orchestras and symphonic bands, he is regularly engaged to conduct brass choirs, give private brass seminars for professional orchestras and serve as a jury member in brass solo and ensemble competitions.
